Catwalk & Fashion Show Rules & Regulation

Want to show off your outfit or make a fashion statement on stage to a large audience? This is the place for you! The event is hosted by Stone Child College. All original hand-made outfits, or store bought or rented are welcomed.

Registration Requirements

❖ All participants are students and must be registered at least half time at their respective colleges. If a college wants to participate but does not have student participation, staff will be eligible to participate, but must inform the coordinator of the show.

❖ Registration will be available on online. Those who register on online will be assigned a color coded number in the category for which they register. Numbers will be picked up on site at the registration desk.

❖ Submit a short bio of self or highlight what you want the audience to know about you. (year in college, degree sought, extracurricular activity, community service, etc.)

❖ Submit short information of the outfit to be presented including designer.

❖ Bio and outfit information must be on a 5”x 4” index cards.

❖ Register in the category for which you wish to be judged on.

1. Best College – representation of college colors and/or logo

2. Best MMIW or best Red – representation of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women

3. Best Original and/or Designer - Your choice

Rules and Regulations

❖ All featured outfits must be original fashion designs and must disclose the designer’s information.

❖ Purchased or rented outfits are permitted.

❖ Each contestant may present only 1 outfit. Teams are allowed, with 2 per team.

❖ Should a request to change an outfit or outfits occur for any reason at the time of showing, it is at the discretion of the coordinator to allow or disallow. Time permitting. It may cost points for the participant.

❖ Accessories may include but not limited to; beaded items, boots, hats, jackets, etc.

❖ ANY AND ALL CHANGES MADE BY PARTICIPANT MUST BE MADE PRIOR TO SHOW TO AVOID CONFUSION AND CHAOS.

❖ The coordinator has the authority to remove a contestant for any reason not in compliance. (This is a drug and alcohol free activity).

Judging Criteria
All contestants will be judged on appearance on stage in an outfit representative of the category registered. Scoring shall be based on overall first impression, sense of confidence, personality, stage presence, walk, posture and appropriateness of attire according to category and sense of attractiveness. There will be 3 places per category and 1 overall. The overall must meet all the above judging criteria in each category presented.
